

Paul Ladd Scholarship

This scholarship established by the Class of 1991 and supported by the faculty, staff, and community, recognizes the 36 years of service Paul Ladd gave to Wooster High School. His dedication and leadership will be recognized each time this award is given. Awards are based upon a combination of academic skill, personal character, and exhibited potential for leadership. The scholarship board, consisting of the senior class counselor, and Political Science teacher, will not discriminate against a potential recipient's race, color, creed, religion, sex or handicap. The award will be sent directly to the college or university of the recipient's choice.
