Robert D. Jollay Scholarship

Employer-Related Post-High School Scholarship

About The Program

The Robert D. Jollay Scholarship Program was established by the Company's founder to help motivate and enable children and grandchildren of employees to pursue college or other post-high school educational opportunities.

Eligibility

Scholarship applicants must be enrolled (or enrolling) in a post-secondary educational institution (including, but not limited to, vocational school, two-year, and four-year degree institutions). Applicants must have a cumulative high school grade-point-average of at least 2.50 on a 4.00 system, or 2.80 on a 4.00 system for those currently enrolled in post-secondary educational institution.

Children (by natural means, legal guardianship, or adoption), step-children, and/or grandchildren of active PCA CorrChoice, LLC employees may apply for the scholarship. An active employee is defined as a current employee with at least three (3) years of continuous service at the time of original application. A previous scholarship recipient will not have his or her scholarship terminated or renewal rejected because the recipient's parent or grandparent terminates employment.

Lineal descendants of Robert D. Jollay and their spouses and stepchildren are not eligible for scholarships. Neither are stepchildren, lineal descendants, or spouses of persons involved in the selection process.

Eligibility ends with the earlier of either completion of the degree or certificate, or completion of the number of semesters/terms which should have resulted in a degree or certificate.

Full time students who plan to attend or are currently attending post-secondary educational institutions are invited to apply for scholarships of up to $5,000. Community college or vocational students may apply for scholarships up to $3,000.

How to Apply?
